

Date Posted

9/9/2008 9:02:22 AM

US Citizenship Required

Applicants selected will be subject to a government security investigation and must meet eligibility requirements for access to classified information.

Title

Senior EADSIM Developer

Requisition Number

F-2450

Description

Senior developer for the Extended Air Defense Simulation (EADSIM). As the original and continuing developer of EADSIM, TBE provides enhancements to EADSIM, uses EADSIM and supports others in their use of EADSIM. This person will be one of the task leaders for the development and use of EADSIM. US citizen, current clearance is a plus.

Education Required

BS in engineering, computer science or math, advanced degrees helpful.

Years Experience Required

10

Experience Required

Experience in all phases of software development. Must be proficient in programming. Experience in development and use of air and missile defense simulation is required.

Skills Required

The ideal candidate will have strong analytical skills, knowledge of operations research techniques, be able to work both independently and in a team environment, have strong written, verbal, and interpersonal communication skills including presentation preparation, and strong aptitude for modeling and simulation. Must be proficient in programming, have knowledge/experience in development of simulations.

Work Location

Huntsville, AL United States

Why can't I apply for this job?