

Date Posted

9/9/2008 9:05:22 AM

US Citizenship Required

Applicants selected will be subject to a government security investigation and must meet eligibility requirements for access to classified information.

Title

EADSIM Analyst

Requisition Number

F-2451

Description

As the original and continuing developer of EADSIM, TBE uses EADSIM and supports others in their use of EADSIM. This takes the form of formal studies and also providing the databases for EADSIM use for TBE and for others. This job is to lead the use of EADSIM to conduct analysis and the development of databases to support EADSIM. US citizen, current TS/SCI clearance is a plus.

Education Required

BS in engineering or math, advanced degrees helpful.

Years Experience Required

12

Experience Required

Familiar with many of the air and missile defense, aircraft survivability, space and ISR, family of tools and their combined use to support mission and campaign analysis. Demonstrated capability to lead and implement use of EADSIM. Experience in implementing these scenarios in EADSIM. Experience in developing analysis reports from the use of EADSIM.

Skills Required

The ideal candidate will have strong analytical skills, knowledge of operations research techniques, be able to work both independently and in a team environment, have strong written, verbal, and interpersonal communication skills including presentation preparation, and strong aptitude for modeling and simulation.

Work Location

Huntsville, AL United States

Why can't I apply for this job?